The International Trusts Laws 1992 to 2013 (Consolidation in English)	1

NOTE FOR THE READER

The publication at hand by the Office of the Law Commissioner is an English translation and consolidation of the International Trusts Laws 1992 to 2013 [i.e. 69(I)/1992, 20(I)/2012, 98(I)/2013]. The corrigendum published in the Official Gazette of the Republic, Suppl. I.(I), No. 4354 of the 7th September, 2012, has also been included in the text.

However useful the English translation of the consolidated Laws is in practice, it does not replace the original text of the Laws since only the Greek text of the Laws published in the Official Gazette of the Republic is authentic.

The Office of the Law Commissioner shall not be under any liability to any person or organisation in respect of any loss or damage, including consequential loss or damage, however caused, which may be incurred or arises directly or indirectly from reliance on information in this publication.

PART II

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO INTERNATIONAL TRUSTS

Validity of international trust.
4(a) (i) of 20(I)/2012
4(a) (ii) of 20(I)/2012

3.-(1) A settlor who transfers or disposes in any way an asset to an international trust shall be deemed to have the capacity so to do if such

4(a) (iii) of 20(I)/2012. person is at the time of such transfer or disposal of full age and of sound mind, under the law of the country of which he is resident.

4(b) of 20(I)/2012. (1A) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1) and the terms governing the trust, all matters arising in respect of an international trust or any disposition of property under such trust, including, without any limitation, any matters concerning:

(a) the validity, interpretation or effect of any trust or disposition or any variation thereof;

(b) the validity or effect of any transfer or other disposition of property in trust;

(c) the management of the trust, whether it is carried out in the Republic or elsewhere, including matters concerning the functions, appointment or removal of trustees, protectors and enforcers of a trust;

(d) the existence and extent of any functions in relation to the trust, including, without limitation, the powers to vary, revoke and make any appointment as well as the validity of the performance of any such functions;

(e) the powers, obligations or duties of trustees, protectors or enforcers of a trust or regarding the duties or rights of trustees, protectors and enforcers of a trust;

shall be determined in accordance with the law in force in the Republic, without reference to the law in force in any other jurisdiction:

Provided that, the law in force in the Republic or in any other country in respect of any inheritance or succession shall not in any manner affect, in accordance with the above, the transfer or disposition or validity of any international trust.

4 (c) (i) of 20(I)/2012
4 (c) (ii) of 20 (I)/2012
4 (c) (iii) of 20 (I)/2012.

(2) Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary of the law of the Republic or of the law of any country, an international trust shall not be void or voidable and no claim may be brought in respect of assets transferred to an international trust in the event of the settlor's bankruptcy or liquidation or in any action or proceedings against the settlor at the suit of his creditors and notwithstanding further that the trust is voluntary and without consideration having been given for the same, or is made on or for the benefit of the settlor, the spouse or children of the settlor or any of them, unless and to the extent that it is proven to the satisfaction of the Court that the international trust was made with the intent to defraud the creditors of the settlor at the time when the payment or transfer of assets was made to the trust. The onus of proof of such intent lies on his creditors.

(3) An action against a trustee of an international trust pursuant to the provisions of subsection (2) must be brought within a period of two years from the date when the transfer or disposal of assets was made to the trust.

4(d) of 20(I)/2012.

(4) No international trust and no disposition of property to or under such a trust, shall be void, voidable, or liable to be set aside or subject to any implied term, nor shall the capacity of any settlor, trustee, enforcer, protector or beneficiary be questioned, and no settlor, trustee, enforcer, protector, beneficiary or third party shall be subject to any obligation or liability or be deprived of any right, claim or interest, by reason that:

(a) the applicable laws of any jurisdiction prohibit or do not recognise the concept of a trust, or

(b) the trust or disposition –

(i) invalidated or eliminated or potentially invalidated or eliminated the rights, claims, interests, obligations or liabilities conferred or imposed by the law of any jurisdiction on any person:

- by reason of a personal relationship to a settlor or any beneficiary, or subject of a discretionary trust or power of any nature, or

- by way of right to inheritance, or

(ii) is contrary, or could potentially be contrary to any Law or any judicial or administrative judgment, order or action of any other jurisdiction intended to recognise, protect, enforce or give effect to any such rights, claims, interests, obligations or liabilities, whether by seeking to invalidate the trust or disposition or by imposing any obligation or liability or otherwise on a settlor, trustee, enforcer, protector, beneficiary or third party.

Presumption against avoidance of international trust.

4. Unless an international trust contains an express power of revocation it shall be deemed to be irrevocable by the settlor or his legal personal representatives, notwithstanding that it is voluntary.

Powers of the settlor.
5 of 20(1)/2012.

4A.-(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other Law or Regulations, the reservation or granting to a settlor of a trust of any right or interest to the trust property or any of the powers mentioned in subsection (2) of this section, whether reserved to the settlor or conferred on him in his capacity as protector or enforcer of the trust or otherwise, shall not in any way affect the validity of the trust nor delay the execution of the trust.

(2) The powers referred to in subsection (1) of this section are the following:

(a) to revoke or amend the terms of a trust or any trusts or powers arising wholly or partly under it;

(b) to advance, distribute, pay or otherwise apply income or capital of the trust property or to give directions for the making of such advancement, distribution, payment or application;

(c) to exercise the powers of a director or officer or issue binding directions as to the appointment or removal of a director or officer of any company, wholly or partly owned by the trust;

(d) to give binding directions to the trustee in connection with the purchase, retention, sale, management, lending, pledging or charging of the trust property or the exercise of any powers or rights arising from such property;

(e) to appoint or remove any trustee, enforcer, protector or beneficiary;

(f) to appoint or remove any investment manager or investment adviser;

(g) to change the applicable law governing the trust or the forum for the administration of the trust;

(h) to restrict the exercise of any power or discretion of a trustee by requiring that they are only exercisable with the consent of the settlor or any other person expressly specified in the terms governing the trust.

(3) Where a power referred to in subsection (2) has been reserved by or granted to the settlor either in his capacity as settlor, protector or enforcer of the trust, a trustee who acts in accordance with the exercise of the power is not deemed to be acting in breach of trust.

(4) Where any power referred to in subsection (2) has been reserved by the settlor, or conferred on him in his capacity as protector or enforcer of the trust, no intention to defraud may be imputed to the settlor for the purposes of section 3(2).

Duration of international trust.
6 of 20(I)/2012.
20(I) of 2012.

5.-(1) In respect of an international trust created on or after the commencement of this Law and subject to the terms of the trust:

(a) there shall be no limit on the period for which a trust continues to be valid and enforceable, and

(b) no rule against perpetuities or remoteness of vesting or any analogous rule applies to a trust or to any advancement, appointment, payment or application of property from a trust.

(2) Except where the terms of a trust expressly provide to the contrary, no advancement, distribution, appointment, payment or application of income or capital from the trust to another trust shall be invalidated solely because the other trust continues to be valid and enforceable beyond the date on which the first trust must terminate.

Validity of terms for non distribution of income.

6. A direction in an instrument creating an international trust for non distribution of income is valid for any period within the duration of the trust.

Charitable trusts and trusts for a purpose.
7(a) of 20(I)/2012.

7.-(1) Subject to the provisions of the Constitution of the Republic and notwithstanding the provisions of any other Law or Regulations of the Republic or any other country, an international trust shall be deemed to be charitable where the trust has as its main purpose the achievement of one or more of the following:

- (a) the prevention or relief of poverty;
- (b) the advancement of education;
- (c) the advancement of religion;

- (d) the advancement of health or the saving of lives;
- (e) the advancement of citizenship or community development;
- (f) the advancement of the arts, culture, heritage or science;
- (g) the advancement of amateur sport;
- (h) the advancement of human rights, conflict resolution or reconciliation or the promotion of religious or racial harmony or equality and diversity;
- (i) the advancement of environmental protection or improvement;
- (j) the relief of those in need by reason of youth, age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage;
- (k) the advancement of animal welfare and protection of animals;
- (l) any other purpose beneficial to the public in general or which may reasonably be considered to be relevant to any of paragraphs (a) - (k) above.

(2) An international trust established for one or more of the objects or purposes set out in subsection (1) shall be deemed to be charitable, notwithstanding that-

- (a) The object or purposes are not of a public nature or for the benefit of the public, but may benefit a section of the public, or that it may also benefit privately one or more persons or objects or persons within a class of persons; or
- (b) the international trust is liable to be amended or to be terminated whether by the exercise of a power of appointment or disposition of assets; or
- (c) the trustee has the power to defer the distribution of the benefits to any charity of the trust for a period not exceeding the period of the trust; or
- (d) the international trust is or is deemed to be in the class of discretionary trusts.

(3) Notwithstanding any legal provision to the contrary of the law of the Republic or the law of any other country, an international trust shall not be void or voidable by reason only that the trust is a trust for a purpose, provided that when the trust is not a perpetual trust or when it may be terminated, the instrument creating the trust shall specify the event or the events upon which the trust terminates and provides for the disposition of the net assets of the trust upon its termination. An international trust so created shall be enforceable by the settlor or his personal representatives or enforcer.

7 (b)(i) of 20(I)/2012
7(b)(ii) of 20 (I)/2012.

Authorised investments.

8.-(1) Subject to the provisions of the instrument creating an international trust, the trustee may at any time invest the whole or any part of the trust funds in any kind of investment that he could make if he were absolutely entitled to the assets of the trust:

8 (a) of 20(I)/2012.

- (a) Wherever the investment is situated; and
- (b) whether or not the funds have already been invested.

(2) The trustee may vary the investment or retain it in its original state, as long as he exercises the diligence and prudence that a reasonable person would be expected to exercise in making investments.

8(b) of 20(I)/2012.

(3) The trustee may hold, retain or invest in any movable property in the Republic and overseas including shares in companies incorporated in the Republic and in immovable property located in the Republic or overseas:

20(I) of 2012.

Provided that this right applies to both movable and immovable property lawfully held or acquired by the trustee prior to the commencement of this Law.

Power to change
the applicable law of the international

9. If the terms of an international trust so provide the applicable law of the trust may be changed to or from the law of the Republic provided that:

trust.

- (a) In case of a change from the law of the Republic, to another law, the new applicable law would recognize the validity of the trust and the respective interests of the beneficiaries;
- (b) in case of change from another law to the law of the Republic, such change is recognized by the applicable law of the trust previously in effect.

Variation of international trust by the Court.

10.- (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), the Court may on application by order to approve, if it thinks fit, any arrangement which varies or revokes the terms of an international trust or enlarges or modifies the powers of management or administration of the trustees, on behalf of the persons stated hereinafter, whether or not there is another beneficiary who is capable of assenting to the amendment:

- (a) Any person incapacitated at law having directly or indirectly an interest whether vested or contingent under an international trust; or
- (b) any person, whether ascertained or not, who may become entitled, directly or indirectly, to an interest under an international trust as being the person, which at a future date or on the happening of a future event shall be a person of any specified description or a member of any specified class of persons referred to in the instrument creating the international trust; or
- (c) any person unborn; or
- (d) any person in respect of any interest of his that may arise to him by reason of any discretionary power given to any one on the failure on determination of an existing interest that has not yet failed or determined; or
- (e) any other person with permission of the Court.

9 (a) of 20(1)/2012.

(2) The Court shall not approve an arrangement on behalf of any person coming within paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (1), unless it is satisfied that the proposed arrangement appears to be for the benefit of that person, but without substantial prejudice of the interests of other interested persons.

(3) Where in the management or administration of an international trust the Court thinks useful the sale, lease, pledge, charge, surrender, release or in other way disposition, or the purchase, investment, acquisition, expenditure or other transaction which cannot be effected by reason of the absence of any power for that purpose vested in the trustee by the terms of the international trust or by Law, the Court may confer on the trustee, either generally or in any particular circumstance, a power for that purpose on such terms and subject to such provisions and conditions as it thinks fit, and may direct in what manner and from what assets any money authorised is to be expended, and the costs of any transaction are to be borne.

(4) An application to the Court under this section may be made by the trustee or by or on behalf of any beneficiary.

9(b) of 20(I)/2012.

(5) Without prejudice to any power of the Court to vary the terms of the trust in accordance with subsections (1) to (4) of this section, a trust may be varied in any manner provided by the terms that govern it.

PART III

JURISDICTION, APPLICABLE LAW

AND FOREIGN LAW TRUSTS

Principles of choice of applicable law.
13 of 20(I)/2012.

12A.-(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1A) of section 3, any trust shall be governed by the law chosen by the settlor:

Provided that the choice must be express or implied in the terms of the instrument creating or evidencing the trust, which shall be interpreted, if deemed necessary, in the light of the circumstances of each case.

(2) An express or implied choice of the law of the Republic in accordance with subsection (1) is valid, effective and conclusive irrespective of the circumstances.

(3) Where the law chosen in accordance with subsection (1) does not provide for trusts or the specific category of trusts concerned, the choice shall not be valid and the law mentioned in subsection (4) shall apply.

(4) Where no choice of law has been applied, the trust shall be governed by the law with which it is most closely connected:

Provided that for the purpose of determining the law most closely connected to the trust, the following matters shall be taken into consideration:

- (a) the state in which the administration of the trust is carried out as designated by the settlor;
- (b) the state in which the assets of the trust are located;
- (c) the state of residence of the trustee;
- (d) the objects of the trust and the states where they are to be fulfilled.

(5) In cases where subsection (4) is applicable and in accordance with which, the law most closely connected to the trust is the law of the Republic, the application of the law of the Republic shall be valid, effective and conclusive, irrespective of other circumstances.
